use, etc.) owned by Opdenenergy or its licensors, all of which are protected by intellectual property rights.

The reproduction, distribution and public communication, including its kind of making available, of all or part of the contents of this Website, for commercial purposes, in any form and by any technical means, without the express authorization of Opdenenergy, is expressly prohibited. All rights reserved.

The contents of the Website are at the Users' disposal for information purposes and may be modified and updated at any time. Therefore, under no circumstances may it be understood that any right to exploit the contents displayed has been granted.

Under no circumstances may browsing through the Website imply the waiver, transmission, license or total or partial transfer of intellectual or industrial property rights, unless otherwise established in writing.

None of the contents hosted on the Website may be downloaded, reproduced or used in any device or place other than our Website, unless we have enabled the means to do so.

For security reasons, it is not allowed to use "frames" or mechanisms that alter or vary the design, original configuration, or contents of the Website.

With respect to links or hyperlinks, we may provide you with access to independent third-party websites that are directly related to the advertising displayed and reproduced through the Website. As these are not our property and we have no control over them, we are not responsible for their content and/or operation.

Opdenenergy reserves the right to take any action it deems appropriate against those who infringe any of the rights described in this section.

4. SECURITY AND PROTECTION OF PERSONAL DATA

The information or personal data provided by the User will be processed in accordance with the Data Protection Policy of Opdenenergy, accessible through the following link. The personal data requested are always those strictly necessary for the maintenance, development or control of the relationship with the Users.

The transmission of all personal data is carried out through a secure hypertext transfer protocol, a system that guarantees the confidentiality of the data sent.

5. MINORS

The contents of this Website are intended for people of legal age. Opdenenergy does not intend to obtain data from minors, and will immediately proceed to delete such data the moment it becomes aware of the existence of them in its files.

6. RIGHT OF EXCLUSION

Opdenenergy reserves the right to deny or withdraw access to the website and/or to the services offered without prior notice, on its own accord or following the request of a third party, to those users who fail to comply with the Conditions.

Opdenenergy shall pursue any breach of the Conditions, as well as any improper use of its website and shall exercise all appropriate civil and criminal actions set forth by the law.
